Assembly Participant Code of Conduct

- We all deserve to work and participate in events with a professional environment in which we are treated with dignity and respect.
- Old Republic Title is committed to creating such an environment because it brings out the full potential in each of us, which, in turn, contributes directly to our business success.
- Old Republic Title is an equal employment opportunity employer and is committed to hosting events and providing a work environment free of discrimination and from abusive, offensive or harassing behavior.
- Unacceptable behavior, such as offensive comments, intimidation, inappropriate physical conduct and unwelcome sexual attention at Assembly functions will not be tolerated.
- Consequences for participants violating the Assembly Code of Conduct will include expulsion from the event and there will be no refund of registration or other fees.
- Complaints should be brought to the immediate attention of any Old Republic Title staff person present. Alternatively, complaints may be emailed to events@fl.oldrepublictitle.com. Any employee who feels harassed should follow the guidance in the Company policy.
- The Assembly Code of Conduct applies to participants, vendors, guests and Old Republic Title employees.
